

This Week's News & Deadline Reminders

In this edition, we would like to announce our plenary speakers for the Transducer 2019/ EUROSENSORS XXXIII Conference

View Program Schedule

Plenary Speaker Donald Ingber to Open Transducers/EuroSensors 2019 Conference

Professor Donald Ingber, from Wyss Institute at Harvard University will open the conference on Monday, 24 June. He will be speaking about HUMAN ORGANS-ON-CHIP.

Visit Dr. Ingber's Homepage

Plenary Speaker Bernhard Schölkopf on Machine Learning

Professor Schölkopf's from Max Planck Institute will give a plenary lecture on Tuesday, 25 June. His research interests include: Machine Learning and Inference from Empirical Data; Brain-Computer Interfaces, and Robot Learning

Visit Dr. Schölkopf's Homepage

Plenary Speaker Di Li on Transducers for Radio Astronomy

Professor Di Li from the Chinese Academy of Sciences will give his presentation, entitled FROM ARECIBO TO FAST, THE KINSHIP BETWEEN IMPOSSIBLE DREAMS on Wednesday, 26 June.

Visit Dr. Li's Homepage

Plenary Speaker Emmanuel Scorsone, the 2018 EUROSENSORS Fellow to Present on Thursday, 27 June

Dr. Emmanuel Scorsone from CEA-LIST in France will be giving a presentation, entitled DIAMOND: A NEW CHEMICAL SENSOR'S BEST FRIEND?

Learn More About Dr. Scorsone

Early Bird Registration Deadline 26 March

Register today to receive the lowest rates! Sign up for Sunday Short Courses and Post-Conference Tours, as well!

Learn More!

Sponsored by:

